

Although it can be run in either direction, from Wilkesport to the Crother's Park launch point (at the west end) is downstream and is advisable during high water runoff. This meandering route runs through wooded areas and open farmland for 26 km (16 miles). Halfway between Wilkesport and Lambton Line the river passes through McKeough Dam.